

Seventh Sunday of Easter, June 2, 2019

Draw us into the unity that Jesus envisions for all the children of God. With refugees and immigrants, our brothers and sisters in Christ, let us behold your glory.

Hear us, O God.

Your mercy is great.

Day of Pentecost, June 9, 2019

Come, Holy Spirit. Make our hearts glad as you look with love on all those you have created. We rejoice for all our sisters and brothers in Christ, especially strangers who have become neighbors, brought together in your love.

Hear us, O God.

Your mercy is great.

The Holy Trinity/First Sunday after Pentecost, June 16, 2019

For families who are separated; for fathers who travel far from home to find work; for children who long for a father's presence, let us pray.

Have mercy, O God.

Time after Pentecost - Lectionary 12, June 23, 2019

For all children of God, that we may no longer be defined by our labels – Jew and Greek, male and female, refugee, stranger, immigrant, alien. That God's power would heal us and help us to grow in unity in Christ Jesus, let us pray.

Have mercy, O God.

Time after Pentecost - Lectionary 13, June 30, 2019

For those who journey and whose way is uncertain and hard, that God's love would accompany them. That they might be met with joy, peace, patience and generosity, let us pray.

Have mercy, O God.

Lutheran Immigration and Refugee Service

Prayers for the Season of Pentecost